SWIN FAMILY

When families immigrated to the New Lands, they came with hopes and desires for a better life. Imagine Adam Swin's desperation and frustration, after being in the U.S. just a few short years, when his wife died leaving him with 5 small children to raise.

Joseph C. Krieger and Mary Elizabeth Swin, wedding picture December, 21, 1897.

But Adam must have been a stubborn and determined man. With the help of a sister (who later married a Mr. Reimund) he raised Mary, Adam, Peter, George and Margaret. He remained a widower the rest of his life and absolutely refused to speak the English language although he understood it perfectly well.

Adam (b. 10 Jan. 1819 — d. 5 Dec. 1890) and Margaret Mary Ludwig were both born in Germany and married there. They lived in Bucyrus, Oh. for a few years before they bought their farm in Monroe twp. in 1854.

Mary married Albert Kaney in 1898 and he was a blacksmith in Napoleon. Young Adam was married twice and was known as an excellent wagonmaker and repairer in Napoleon. Peter married Caroline Walter (dau. of George and Caroline Lehman Walter) on 2 Nov. 1873 and took his bride back to the log cabin he shared with his father. A few years later, George married Emma Walter (Caroline's sister) and they also lived in the log cabin.

Later Peter acquired property less than a mile north of his father's farm and built a home. Peter and Caroline's children were: Mary Matilda b. 4 Oct. 1875; Mary Ann Elizabeth b. 9 Feb. 1878; George b. 6 Feb. 1880; John b. 30 Nov. 1882; and Katherine b. June 1885. Peter died 13 Aug. 1922 and Caroline d. 21 Apr. 1928.

Circa 1950. Mary Matilda Swin Fahrer, Mary Ann Elizabeth Swin, Krieger Reining, Katherine Swin Knepper

Mary Matilda (Tillie) married Louis Fahrer in 1895. Louis was the son of Philip and Mary, who immigrated to the U.S. in 1849. Louis Fahrer had a showplace farm in Monroe Twp. which was remembered years after his untimely death in 1931. Their children were Albert b. Aug. 1896 and Anna b. Jan. 1898.

Mary Ann Elizabeth (Lizzie) married first, 21 Dec. 1897, Joseph C. Krieger. Joe, b. 11 Mar. 1878, was the son of Samuel and Anna Krieger, of Ridgeville Twp. Lizzie and Joe's children were: George b. 12 Aug. 1898 (m. Emma Robinson); Clarence b. 14 Dec. 1900 (m. Violet Knaval); Josephine b. 11 Jan. 1904 (m. Wm. Summersett); and Virginia b. 22 Dec. 1905 (m. Arthur Keller). Joe purchased a small farm in Fulton Co. near Pettisville where he soon began to ail and died at age 30. For 4 years Lizzie ran her farm, did the laundry for a boarding house and picked up and delivered milk, by wagon, for the Pet Co. to keep her family together. Then she met and married Hermen Reining who was born in Germany 8 July 1874. He was a molder and they moved frequently, but finally settled in Toledo where he died 24 Mar. 1947 and Lizzie died 5 July 1958. Their children are: Herman b. 18 Oct. 1911, who married Vivian Hunt, has 3 children and 9 grandchildren; Louis b. 7 Sept. 1913, married Martha Kauffman and has 4 sons and 7 grandchildren; and Dorothy b. 24 Nov. 1915 and married Frank Wm. Hunt (bro. to Vivian Hunt) and has 4 children and 7 grandchildren.

Circa 1930. Mary Ann Elizabeth and Hermen Fred Reining

George and John Swin remained on the family farm for most of their years. One of them married, but both are buried with their parents at Forest Hill Cemetery. John died in 1946 and George in 1957.

Katherine married Roland Knepper and they moved to Defiance Co. to farm. They had 3 daughters and a number of grandchildren. Katie died 1 Aug. 1968, quite some time after she was left a widow. Submitted, Helen Hunt Read

OBITUARY

After an illness of over a year, Mrs. Mary Kanney peacefully passed away on Sunday evening at a little after seven o'clock. Mrs. Kanney was the daughter of Adam Swin and his wife, and was born in the Grand-duchy of Baden, Germany, on August 5, 1844. With her father and mother she came to America at the age of five. After a short stay in Crawford county, Ohio, the family removed to Henry county and settled on a farm in Monroe township. The deceased lost her mother when she was quite young. In October, 1870, she was married to Albert J. Kanney. For about a year after their marriage, the young couple resided at Florida, and then removed to Napoleon, where Mr. Kanney ran a blacksmith shop on the south side till the time of his death, now almost twelve years ago. Soon after their removal to Napoleon the Kanney family moved into the house where Mrs. Kanney died and where she lived uninterruptedly for 42 years. Mrs. Kanney is survived by three daughters: Mrs. C. J. Shoemaker, Mrs. Chas. Parcher and Minnie Rexroth. A son died in his infancy. Four grandchildren mourn the loss of a beloved grandmother. Among the nearer relatives of the departed are also three brothers, Peter and George Swin of Monroe township and Adam Swin of Toledo, as well as one sister, Mrs. Maggie Metzger, of Detroit. Mrs. Kanney was ill for over a year and confined to the house for eight months. During her long and painful illness she was lovingly cared for by her daughters who did all they could to relieve their mother. The funeral took place yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the late residence of the deceased on East Maumee avenue. The services were conducted by Rev. Lankenau in whose pastoral care the departed was during her last illness. Interment in Forest Hill cemetery.

"Forever with the Lord!"
Amen! so let be;
Life from the dead is in that word,
'Tis immortality.

Cards of Thanks

We extend our hearty thanks to all our friends and neighbors for their kind help and comfort in our hour of sorrow and bereavement.

Charles Shumaker Taken by Death

Napoleon lost one of its prominent citizens Tuesday when Charley J. Shumaker succumbed to a stroke of apoplexy at his home.

Mr. Shumaker was born 67 years ago. He was united in marriage with Miss Kathryn Kanney and to this union four children were born: Albert G., Clarence R. and Floyd who preceded their father in death and Mrs. Byrl Klotz, who with the wife and four grand children survive. The deceased is also survived by sisters Mrs. Ora Clady, Mrs. Bertha Kile and Mrs. Dora Hughey and one brother Harley. A sister, Mrs. Mollie Knipp has passed on.

Mr. Shumaker was quite active in the business and social life of Napoleon. He conducted a popular barber shop for over 40 years and was prominent in the Modern Woodmen and Moose fraternal circles. He was secretary of the Moose for many years.

Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the Boyer Funeral Home with Rev. A. M. Lowry in charge.

OBITUARY

Clarence Raymond Shumaker, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Shumaker was born in Napoleon, Ohio, July 22, 1898, and departed this life April 8, 1922, being therefore 23 years, 8 months and 22 days of age.

Brother Shumaker was very patient during his long illness and spent much time in prayer and thought and passed away peacefully into the Great Beyond.

He leaves a wife, father and mother, one brother, one sister and a host of relatives and near frineds to mourn his going hence. Again we stand face to face with God's great law is it works out his purpose in humanity. Our brother heard the call and is gone, and we stand in the shadows and see but dimly on the border lands of life and death. So we revently bow the head and say, Thy will oh God be done.

Funeral services were held from the residence Tuesday morning at 1 o'clock, Rev. Burton officiating. Interment in Forest Hill cemetery.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank relatives and friends for kind expressions of sympathy and beautiful floral offerings.

Mrs. Clarence Shumaker, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Shumaker and Family.

Death of Clarence R. Shumaker

SHUMAKER.—Clarence Raymond Shumaker, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Shumaker, was born in Napoleon, O., July 22, 1898, and departed this life April 8 1922, being 23 years, 8 months and 22 days of age. Brother Shumaker was very patient during his illness and spent much time in prayer and thought and passed away peacefully into the great beyond. He leaves a wife, father, mother, one brother, one sister and a host of relatives and near friends to mourn his going home. Again we stand face to face with God's great law as it works out His purpose in humanity. Our Brother heard the call and is gone, and we stand in the shadows and see but dimly on the border lands of life and death. So we reverently bow the head and say "Thy will, Oh God, be done."

Funeral services were held Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock from the residence on E. Maumee Ave., Rev. Burton officiating. Interment at Forest Hill.

Napoleon Mourns Passing Of Minnie Rexroth

Minnie Rexroth has gone from us—one of Napoleon's best loved women passed away in Heller Memorial Hospital early Tuesday morning.

Mrs. Rexroth was born March 16, 1874, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kanney.

Her body was taken to her home at 111 East Maumee avenue, where it will remain until Friday morning when it will be returned to the Boyer-Walker Mortuary, where services will be held at 2:30, conducted by Rev. G. W. Whyman, with burial in Forest Hill.

She is survived by her sister, Mrs. Charles Parcher, two nieces, Mrs. Charles Klotz and Mrs. Frank Barth.

LOUIS FAHRER COMMITS SUICIDE AT FARM HOME

Father Despondent Because of Son's Arrest Shoots Self With Shot-Gun Early Tuesday

Louis Fahrer, 59, prominent Monroe township farmer committed suicide at his farm home early Tuesday morning. Fahrer was rushed to the Memorial hospital here where he died shortly after being admitted.

Despondency was given as the reason for the rash act. He had been troubled over his son's arrest last week in connection with a robbery in Toledo.

Early Tuesday morning, Fahrer arose early and told his wife he was going to the kitchen to get a drink of water. Shortly afterward Mrs. Fahrer heard a shot and found her husband fatally wounded, lying in the front yard, with a shotgun by his side.

Friends and relatives are of the opinion that Fahrer worried over the plight of his son. The son was arraigned in municipal court in Toledo and held for the Lucas county grand jury. It was reported that the father had received a call from Toledo Monday asking him to provide bond of $5000 for release of his son Albert.

Young Fahrer together with a woman companion was arrested here by Sheriff Bowerman early last week and turned over to Toledo police, where he was wanted in connection with a holdup of a gasoline filling station at Ontario and Elm streets in Toledo. The woman companion was said to have been released.

He leaves his wife, a daughter Mrs. Milton Franz of Napoleon a son Albert of Toledo and three brothers, Philip of Toledo, John of Napoleon, and William of Akron.

Funeral services will be conducted by Rev. Stockmier from the residence at 10 o'clock Friday morning and at 10:30 from St. John's Reformed church. Burial will be made in the church cemetery.

The largest stick of ship timber ever to arrive in Napoleon was brought here by Wm. Jeakles. It measured 37 inches square and was 50 feet in length, from a white oak tree grown on the Fred Gerken farm 1 mile north of the infirmary. It was shipped out of Napoleon via the canal.

A son was born to Dr. and Mrs. C. L. Haney in Florida.

Friends were booming John Harman for the job of ferryman at Damascus.

Lewis Fahrer received a badly mangled and broken arm when his hand was caught and drawn in a hub machine at the Honeck stave mill in Malinta.

Ice-Running Pool

Trucker's Paradise, a tiny dining spot at U.S. 24 and State Rt. 109, with a clear view of the Maumee River, is offering two free dinners to the person who picks the time and date closest to when the ice goes out. This means, of course, when the main ice jam passes Damascus Bridge, just a stone's throw from the restaurant's back door.

Geraldine Sheller, owner, has diners put their guesses on a calendar near the lunch counter. Speculation on when the ice will go out is an annual Big Deal. Area residents will line the banks of the Maumee as the ice finally leaves.

FREMONT OFFICIALS REFUSE AUTOPSY IN SWIN DEATH

Wood County officials today said that Glenn P. Bracy, prosecuting attorney, and Dr. D. W. Philo, coroner of Sandusky County, refused to allow an autopsy in the case of Henry Swin, 48, of Bradner.

Mr. Swin died yesterday in Fremont Community Hospital of a stroke which relatives charged grew out of a beating administered by Wood County jail prisoners two weeks ago.

Prosecutor Floyd A. Coller said he requested a post-mortem to ascertain whether the beating claims were true. Mr Swin's family agreed to allow it in any county except Wood, Mr. Coller said. No reason for not allowing it here were advanced.

Sandusky County officials refused it, they said, because there was no evidence in their county to warrant an examination of the body.

Mr. Swin, relatives said, died from a stroke of paralysis caused when several prisoners beat him with a strap when he failed to perform Kangaroo court duties. He was in jail for failing to send his children to school.

Swin Hearing Opens Monday

Woman Asks $50,000 in Husband's Death

The $50,000 damage suit of Mrs. Sarah Swin, Bradner, against Arnold F. Isch, sheriff of Wood county, and the United States Fidelity & Guarantee Corp., his surely, will open in Judge Earl Solethers common pleas court, Bowling Green, Monday.

Mrs. Swin is suing for the death of her husband, Henry Swin, who died May 13, 1936, as a result, Mrs. Swin said, of a beating he received during a kangaroo court session in the Wood county jail, 13 days earlier.

Records of the case reveal Swin was on relief. He refused to send his children to school because, he said, they didn't have proper clothing or food. He was jailed for refusing schooling to his children.

Attorney Clyde Probert represents Mrs. Swin, who has eight children, all minors.

SHERIFF DEFENDANT IN SUIT INVOLVING "KANGAROO COURT"

The suit of Sarah Swin, administrator of the estate of Henry Swin, of Bradner, against Sheriff Arnold Isch, and his bondsmen, for $50,000 opened in Wood County Common Pleas court this morning with Judge Earl K. Solether presiding.

Clyde A. Probert, Toledo attorney, is counsel for the plaintiff while Prosecutor Floyd A. Coller, Judge E. G. McClelland, S. W. Bowman and Martin L. Hanna are attorneys for the defendants.

Mrs. Swin seeks damages for the alleged wrongful death of her husband charging in her petition that Mr. Swin died May 13, 1936, in a Fremont hospital as the result of an alleged beating suffered in "kangaroo court" while he was confined in the Wood County jail.

According to the petition, Mr. Swin was arrested on April 30, 1936, on a complaint filed by School Attendance Officer Gus S. Skibbie. When he pleaded guilty to a misdemeanor, Mr. Swin was fined $5 and costs and placed under $100 bond. He was remanded to the county jail in default and spent four days in the jail before raising the bond and fine.

While in the county jail, the petition alleges, he was subjected to strappings by prisoners for violations of "kangaroo court" rulings set up by the other prisoners in the jail at the time.

All charges made by the plaintiff are denied by Sheriff Isch in an answer filed by Prosecutor Coller. Officers said the deceased was in poor health when brought to the county jail and had been receiving medical treatment for sometime before his arrest.

Mr. Swin was arrested by county officials when he allegedly refused to accept repaired shoes for his children in order that they might attend school, according to Attendance Officer Skibbie.

A jury was empaneled this morning and Mr. Probert opened the plaintiff's case shortly before 11:30. The case is expected to continue about four days.

VERDICT FOR ISCH RETURNED BY JURY IN DAMAGE TRIAL

After deliberating for one hour and 40 minutes, a petit jury in Wood County common pleas court yesterday returned a verdict for Sheriff Arnold Isch and his bondsmen in the suit of Mrs. Sarah Swin, administratrix of the estate of Henry Swin for damages amounting to $50,000 against the sheriff.

The verdict was unanimous, all twelve members agreeing, and was The jury was composed of six men and six women.
returned on the first ballot taken.

Mrs. Swin sought the damages in the death of her husband, charging that an alleged beating suffered in "kangaroo court" in the Wood County jail April 30 or May 1, 1936, was the cause of Mr. Swin's death in a Fremont hospital on May 13, 1936.

Clyde A. Probert, attorney for Mrs. Swin, said immediately following the jury's verdict that he would take the case to the court of appeals.

The case aroused great interest here, the courtroom being packed throughout the four days.

Arguments in the case were limited to 3 hours yesterday morning with opposing counsel dividing the time. Judge Earl K. Solether's charge to the jury consumed fifty minutes, one of the longest charges ever given to a Wood County petit jury. The case went to the jury at 2:33 and the verdict returned at 4:07.

Counsel for the sheriff and his bondsmen were Prosecutor Floyd A. Coller, Judge E. G. McClelland, S. W. Bowman and Martin L. Hanna.

JURY EXONERATES SHERIFF ISCH IN SWIN DEATH SUIT

BULLETIN

A jury of six men and six women deliberated 1:40 minutes here this afternoon and rendered a verdict for Sheriff Arnold F. Isch in the action to collect $50,000 from him for the death of Henry Swin, Bradner, asked by his wife, Sarah. All twelve jurors signed the verdict for the defendant.

The $50,000 damage suit against Sheriff Arnold F. Isch filed by Mrs. Sarah Swin, Bradner, who charges her husband, Henry, died from injuries suffered during a kangaroo court session in the county jail on April 30, 1936, went to the jury here today after three days of testimony.

Mrs. Swin charged her husband suffered a "brutal beating" at the hands of prisoners when he was confined in jail on a charge of failing to send his children to school. Three prisoners in jail at that time admitted he was given a whipping with belts but said it was not "very severe" and that he was able to dance a jig afterwards and mop the jail corridor.

Counsel for Mrs. Swin presented testimony by relatives and friends to show that Swin suffered bruises across his back, neck and arms, and that as a result of the beating he went into a coma on May 7, 1936 and died May 13, 1936 with a cerebral hemorrhage directly resulting from the alleged spine injury suffered in the beating.

Counsel for Sheriff Isch submitted testimony to show that Swin was a very defiant person; that he suffered from a social disease; that two of his children were born dead and that a third went blind because of the father's affliction.

The defense also showed that Swin made an 80-mile trip the day following his release from jail and that he worked four days before going into the coma Testimony was presented showing that the weather became extremely warm on May 7, when the temperature went to 92 degrees after running around 70 previously.

Sheriff Isch denied he knew of the kangaroo court beating and was upheld by prisoners taking part in the "court session", who said he was not informed nor did Swin complain of the injury while in jail.

Judge E. K. Solether ordered the jury to ignore a deposition from Dr. C. F. Jackson, former Bradner physician, and testimony of Dr. H. J. Powell, tending to show that Swin suffered from a social disease. He ruled the deposition and testimony pertained to privileged communication between patient and physician.

The defense scored another point Wednesday when the court upheld an objection against permitting Dr. Louis A. Miller, Toledo brain specialist, from answering a hypothetical question concerning the causes of Mr. Swin's death.

The defense objected to his testimony on the grounds that nothing had been brought out by either the plaintiff or defense to show cause of death and that rebuttal testimony was out of order since both sides had rested their cases. The court upheld this objection.

Sheriff Isch is represented by Attorneys S. W. Bowman, Floyd A. Coller, Marty Hanna, and Judge E. G. McClelland and Attorney Clyde A. Probert, Toledo, represents Mrs. Swin.

BITTIKOFER

BIDDIE'S RESTAURANT AND MOTEL 1925-1970

Biddie's Restaurant is one of Napoleon's best-remembered eating establishments. Located at the corner of Routes 24 and 6 on the Southside, Biddie's was established as a roadside Bar-B-Que. Tourist cabins and a gas station were also part of the corner scene.

Owners Lloyd and Callie Bittikofer or "Biddie's" as called by most of their friends and customers, were known for their hospitality and good food. Many still remember Callie's famous pickle relish and the rich old-fashion cream pies.

As the business expanded, Sunday chicken dinners became almost a tradition. Sunday long lines stretching from the restaurant were commonplace — especially during the 1940's.

When Lloyd passed away in 1938, Callie ran the restaurant with one of her daughters and son-in-law, Bertha and Reynold Mullen. When cross-country motoring became the national rage in the 1920's, Biddie's was one of the first to build tourist cabins. In 1946, after World War II, a new modern motel was built at 179 East Maumee Ave.

Callie Bittikofer remained active in the management of the motel until her retirement in 1954. Her other daughter, Mrs. Helen Saneholtz and her husband, Mr. Arthur Saneholtz, then owned and operated the motel until their retirement in 1970.

MAN LITERALLY TORN TO PIECES

Dangerous Dynamite Gets In Its Deadly Work On The Geo. Gunn Farm On Tuesday Morning.

ELZIE TEEPLE OF NAPOLEON FATLLY HURT

Elzie Teeple, known to everybody as Dick Teeple, a resident of South Napoleon and a brother of Marshal Clark Teeple, came to an untimely end on Tuesday while blowing stumps with dynamite on the Geo. Gunn farm four miles west of Napoleon.

In company with Joe Nason, of Napoleon, and Earl Smith, of Ridgeville, Mr. Teeple was clearing the stumps out of a field on the farm. Nason and Smith were going on ahead drilling the holes and Teeple was following them placing the charges and firing them.

He was carrying the dynamite in a basket and at the time of the accident had about ten lbs. of dynamite and nearly 25 percussion caps in the basket. He had called to his fellow workers to "look out" for a stump to blow and had started back away from the stump about 20 feet when the dynamite in the basket let go.

The explosion was so terrific that it was heard plainly in Napoleon and vicinity, and even as far away as in the neighborhood of Liberty.

Nason and Smith, as soon as they recovered from the shock of the explosion, ran to where Teeple had been standing expecting to find him blown to pieces, but he was laying against a stump about eight feet from where the explosion occurred. He was alive but terribly cut and mangled and was carried to the home of Wes. Durham half a mile distant and Drs. Barnhill and Maerker summoned from Napoleon.

An examination by the physicians disclosed that Mr. Teeple had been horribly mangled by the explosion. His left hand had been torn off, his left leg below the knee blown into a pulp, his chin, cheek, forehead and ears cut and slashed to the bone and all ove rthe body were cuts and gashes where the exploding caps had struck. There was no chance for saving the unfortunate man's life as it was evident that besides the injuries that could be seen, he had been crushed internally by the terrific explosion. No attempt was made to amputate the mangled arm and leg and all efforts were devoted toward making the few remaining hours as free from pain as possible. Life slowly ebbed away and at 1:30 p. m. death came to Mr. Teeple's relief.

The funeral will be held from the Presbyterian church this afternoon.

Elzie Teeple was born in Morrow county, Ohio, Nov. 1, 1880, and died April 4, 1916, aged 35 years, 5 months and 3 days. May 11, 1902, he was married to Miss Rosa Swin, of Napoleon. To this union have been born five children, Amelia, Audrey, Alta, Harry and Merle. Besides his wife and children, he leaves to mourn their loss, his mother, three brothers, Marshal Clark Teeple and Charles Teeple, of Napoleon, and Bert Teeple, of Ridgeville; three sisters, Mrs. Eva Bales, of Continental, Mrs. Verdie Davis, of Elyria, and Mrs. Myrtle Brandon, of Morenci, Mich.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish in this manner to express our deep gratitude for all the sympathy and helpfulness shown us during our sudden and terrible bereavement.

Mrs. Rosa Teeple and Family.
